

START

Staff member close contact of positive case identified

Staff member provides evidence of self-isolation notification

If able to, the staff member may work from home in line with flexible working

Business needs require workplace attendance

Options for returning staff to places of work

Is the identified contact case a suspected or confirmed Omicron case?

Yes
(If the positive case is found not to be Omicron, then follow 'No')

No

Fully vaccinated

Single vaccinated or unvaccinated or vaccination status unknown

Medically exempt from testing

Contact is within household

Contact is NOT within household

Self-isolates and referred to occupational health

Take PCR and self isolate until results known

Returns to work. Takes PCR. Offered RMT

Self isolates

PCR is negative.

PCR is positive

Required to wear FRSM and consideration given to change of duties

Returns to work. Offered RMT

Self isolates

Required to wear FRSM and consideration given to change of duties

DCT is currently not available in Wales